Agreement with DeVry University and Keller Graduate School of Management Provides New Opportunities for BIR Training Center Students to Pursue Higher Education

CHICAGO, Illinois. BIR Training Center (BIR), founded in 1993, is an institution of post-secondary education in with four locations in Chicago specializing in a variety of occupational and academic and fields, including English for Specific Purposes and University Test Preparation. DeVry Education Group (NYSE: DV), is a leading institution of higher education offering Bachelor's and Masters' Degree programs in technology, science, business, and the arts. Together, these two institutions have partnered to provide a new educational pathway.

Students accepted into BIR's test preparation program who are interested in continuing their education, and who meet DeVry University and Keller Graduate School of Management admission requirements, will receive a Conditional Letter of Acceptance (CLEO) from DeVry University or Keller Graduate School of Management. Successful completion of BIR's University Test Preparation program will now meet DeVry's English language proficiency requirements for admissions.

"We are excited to partner with BIR Training Center and to have BIR graduates onboard. We look forward to meeting your educational objectives!" said Mr. Shabbir Ghatila, Partner Relations International Supervisor for DeVry Education Group. Hundreds of BIR's ESL students and graduates are entering U.S. degree granting institutions annually. "This agreement provides BIR students with extended learning opportunities to continue their education to pursue their most ambitions educational goals," said Dr. Feliks Kravets, Business English Manager at BIR Training Center.
